IAC accreditation provides a confidential peer-review. Designed to serve facilities as an educational tool, IAC Echocardiography accreditation is made up of two crucial steps. First, facilities conduct a detailed self-evaluation using the IAC Standards for Echocardiography Accreditation and the Online Accreditation application. Completion of the application requires detailed information on all aspects of facility operation as well as the submission of actual case studies for review.

Echocardiography | What Is IAC Accreditation?

Physical Laboratory Existing echocardiography laboratories should be accredited by the Intersocietal Commission for the Accreditation of Echocardiography Laboratories. New laboratories should have pro- cesses for moving the laboratories toward laboratory accreditation by submitting applications within 2 years of the onset of operation.
